

The Case

Two former rival families – The Smiths and The Browns - gather peacefully together at The Park House for the wedding of Nick Smith and Emily Brown. When the groom remains missing 30 minutes after the ceremony was to start, the group prepares to search for him. Before they do, a police officer arrives to inform everyone that Nick was shot to death and homicide detectives would be arriving soon to question them.

Groom Nick was last seen alive at a brunch put on by his family, which Bride Emily and her Maid of Honour did not attend. Prior to leaving alone, Nick said he had one final piece of business to take of and he would meet everyone at The Park House for the 2:00 p.m. ceremony.

It's now up to you to interrogate each suspect to learn their secrets and motives that caused the Groom to be permanently late for his own nuptials! Once you've gathered all your clues, cast a ballot to guess "whodunit" and then sit back to find out if you cracked the case!
